TRAGEDY * ROMANCE * COMEDY!

Macbeth3

Satan prowls after the soul of the warrior Macbeth as he reaches for a bloody Crown in this gender-bent, three-man performance adapted from Shakespeare's tragedy "Macbeth". (TRT: 1 hour.) CAST: Andrew Heffernan*, Scott McRae, and Kevin Vavasseur.

A Tyrant's Tale

Jealous King Leontes condemns his innocent Queen and is rescued by a long-lost princess in this romantic fairy tale, adapted from Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale". (TRT: 1 hour.) CAST: Laura Covelli, David Glasser, Andrew Heffernan*, Scott McRae, Heidi Rose Robbins, Lisa Wolpe* and Kevin Vavasseur.

The Importance of Being Earnest

No one is quite what they seem in Oscar Wilde's deliciously deceitful comedy of secret identities and wicked wit, starring John Achorn as Lady Bracknell. (TRT: 1 hour, 15 minutes.) CAST: John Achorn*, Cynthia Beckert*, Linda Bisesti*, Mark Bramhall*, Laura Covelli, Katrinka Wolfson*, Lisa Wolpe* and Kevin Vavasseur.

Lovers and Madmen

Celebrate our interns as high school and college student actresses play everything from beggars to kings in a festive evening of favorite scenes from Shakespeare. (TRT: 1 hour.)

The Wicked Wilde Shakespeare Festival is a project of the Los Angeles Women's Shakespeare Company - producing innovative gender-bent theater since 1993 (2008 LA Drama Critics Award for Sustained Excellence).

Directed, Adapted and Produced by Lisa Wolpe

Scenic Design: Mia Torres, Lighting: Maura McGuinness, Costume: Allison Leach, Stage Manager: Michelle Stann, Fights: Edgar Landa, Sound: Rachel Myles. Associate Director, The Importance of Being Earnest: Cate Caplin.
